Big Guard Placed About The Customs House

(By Associated Press)

New York, September 21.—Federal and police authorities today were admittedly as far as ever from a solution of the mystery surrounding the explosion that spread death and destruction in Wall Street last Thursday.

Clues at first apparently promising have not developed, and today virtually the only trail being followed was that supplied by Samuel B. Wellington, president of the West Indies Trading Company, who told newspaper men he remembered seeing three suspicious looking men hastening from in front of the United States assay office a few moments before the detonation knocked him unconscious.

The New York customs house today was under the heaviest guard in its history, because of the warning received yesterday that the Wall Street explosion, Thursday, would be followed this afternoon with blowing up of the great government structure.

Although both federal and local authorities were inclined to regard as a hoax the postcard received by Collector Edwards setting two o'clock as the hour for the second explosion, they took no chances.

Office workers making their way down the canon of lower Broadway this morning found scores of coast guards, carrying rifles and sidearms, entering the custom house. In addition, scores of United States custom guards had been mobilized. They were stationed inside the building and at the doors. Everyone entering the structure was closely questioned.

While no order had been received at Governor's Island this morning to send any soldiers to Manhattan for guard duty, several companies of United States regulars were available in case of emergency.

FORTIETH DAY
HUNGER STRIKE

(By Associated Press)
London, September 21.—Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork had a restless night at Brixton Prison where he entered this morning the fortieth day of his hunger strike, according to a bulletin issued by the Irish Self Determination league. He was very weak this morning.

When asked the direct question whether MacSwiney was being fed, a home official said this morning:

"Not that we know of, but you must remember his relatives have free access to him."

This is the first time officials have qualified the statement that, as far as the government doctors know, the Lord Mayor is not receiving nourishment.

Great Reductions in Price Of Automobiles and Motor Trucks Announced by Motor Genius.

Declares Time Has Come To Call Halt On War Methods And Prices And Get Back To Normal.

Will Make No Change in Wages Being Paid At Present Time

Says Practical Effort Must Be Made to Reduce Inflated Prices.

(By Associated Press)

Detroit, September 21.—Establishment of pre-war prices on all products of the Ford Motor Company, effective immediately, was announced today by Henry Ford.

The price reductions range from approximately 14 per cent on motor trucks to 31 per cent on small automobiles.

In announcing the decision of the company Mr. Ford in a formal statement said:

"Now is the time to call a halt on war methods, war prices, war profiteering and war greed. It may be necessary for everybody to stand a little sacrifice but it will be more profitable after all because the sooner we get business of the country back to a pre-war condition, progress, prosperity and contentment will occupy the attention of the people.

"For the best interest of all it is time a real practical effort was made to bring the business of the country and the life of the country down to normal. Inflated prices always retard progress."

The announcement said the price reductions were made despite unfilled orders for 146,065 vehicles.

There will be no reduction in wages at any of the Ford plants, it was announced.

Happy Because "Senator Harding Has Scrapped The League."

Californian Says He is Sure Of Republican Success At The Polls.

Insists League Would Bind America to World Troubles

(By Associated Press)

Sacramento, Cal., September 21.—Senator Hiram Johnson of California, in his first speech in behalf of the Republican national ticket, endorsed the attitude of Senator Warren G. Harding, nominee for the presidency, on the league of nations here today.

"Mr. Harding, happily for himself and for America, has scrapped the league," Senator Johnson said. Senator Johnson has been one of the most bitter foes of the league in the United States Senate.

The speech was made to the Republican state convention at its opening session. It began with congratulations "upon the outlook for Republican success" and an attack upon the present Democratic administration.

"So wide is the dissatisfaction with the present administration," Senator Johnson said, "so great the hostility to many acts of the President, and so acute the justifiable fear of our foreign policy, that apparently nothing can prevent overwhelming Republican success in November."

Senator Johnson then attacked the administration on the league of nations issue.

"Under the specious guise of a league of nations to promote peace and prevent war, we were to be inextricably bound hereafter to every future world war," he continued.

"The stand of the candidates is plain and unambiguous. The one says he will go in the league, and I am proud to say our candidate says he will stay out."

"Every normal man desires to promote peace and prevent war. It is possible this may be done in one way or another in the future without inviting entanglements or imperialistic policies or European or Asiatic schemes of aggression or ambition. That we will strive to find a way to prevent war goes without saying."

"The issue finally culminates now in a solemn referendum of the people. Mr. Cox says if he is successful he will go in. Our candidate says he will stay out. Mr. Harding, happily for himself and for America, has scrapped the league."

MAN WHO CUT THROAT BETTER

Dan Penwell, Still In Weakened Condition, Refuses to Talk of Attempt to take life.

Dan Penwell, prisoner in the county jail on a charge of burglary who made an attempt to take his life by slashing his throat and chest with safety razor blade early Sunday morning is expected to recover.

Penwell had rallied sufficiently to talk Monday, but he would say nothing of his attempted suicide and declared that he knew nothing of what transpired Sunday morning. He seemed to be entirely rational and showed none of the symptoms of insanity displayed Saturday night, as noted by a fellow prisoner, Jimmy James.

Attending physicians state that Penwell shows none of the characteristics of a person insane and that if he did suffer an attack mentally it has completely passed off.

Loss of blood suffered by Penwell was tremendous and he is yet very weak. The Sheriff will question the prisoner in more detail when he is in stronger condition, able to talk and will conduct a thorough investigation.

Penwell is still in the jail where medical attention is being given and where he is being nursed back to strength.

The ball-murdering Yanks, swinging into the home stretch in the A. L. pennant race, are playing the best all-around ball they have displayed all season. They look like a pennant winning club for the first time. The return of Pitcher Thormahlen to form recently has given the Yankee

IS MOST FEARED MAN ON NORTH ANATOLIA COAST

(By Associated Press)

Kerrassoude, Anatolia, Turkey. (By Mail)—Osman Agha, the newly designated governor of Kerrassoude, is probably the most feared man on the north coast of Anatolia.

When the nationalists selected Osman Agha, to impress Greeks, Armenians, Jews and Turks alike into Mustapha Kemal's army, they took into their camp a man who would have been a terrible menace in opposition ranks and who is merciless in executing the orders of the Angora government.

Osman Agha has been for years the self-constituted boss of Kerrassoude in office or out of office he is master of the local situation. Until recently he was only mayor of the little city. But no provincial governor could give the old bandit chief orders. In fact he always managed to unseat all provincial officials. He transcended walls, metropolitans and bishops. Turks, Greeks, Armenians and Jews fear him alike, but had to obey his orders. He took over property which he wanted without legal right and threw anyone into prison who questioned his authority.

Osman Agha was even a self-constituted regulator of women's fashions. He hated high-heeled shoes and short skirts which Moslem women copied from their French sisters. Consequently he issued an edict that no Mohammedan women should wear a heel more than an inch high, and that their dresses should come to their ankles. Then he immediately sent word to all the shoemakers and dressmakers that they would be jailed if they executed orders in violation of his edict.

He dried up Kerrassoude by methods as direct as those of the late Carrie Nation. Without warning he went to all the liquor shops and poured all the spirits into the street. It was being sold in violation of Mohammedan teachings. Being a Turk of the old school and a total abstainer himself, he offered no explanation whatever to the wine merchants, who dared not question his authority.

Immoral women became too conspicuous in Kerrassoude. Consequently he ordered that the heads of all such women be shaved. Many of the women left town. Those which remained disappeared from time to time and many of their bodies were washed up by the sea.

Osman Agha embodies all the tyrannies which Turkish officials exercised over the Christians in Pontus, the Black Sea coast of Anatolia, where Greeks have predominated in the chief cities for many centuries.

CLOSING EVENT OF FALL FESTIVAL AROUSES INTEREST

Coming as the closing event of the Fall Festival the Mardi Gras of Saturday evening drew the attention of the close to 12,000 people in the city as one of the most pleasing attractions of the week.

There were two hundred marchers in line en masque and characters known to every one were portrayed in a manner that did not leave their names to be guessed.

Shortly after eight o'clock the Mardi Gras got underway led by the Washington Band and headed by the committeemen, Richard Haynes in dress suit and John Crayton Griffin, in latest feminine finery.

The parade passed through the main streets and past the reviewing stand where the judges, Mayor V. J. Dahl, Forrest L. Tipton and Joseph H. Harper reached decisions on the award of prizes.

Awards were as follows:

Most fantastic dressed couple, Little Daniel Wilkin and Thurman Shepherd as "The Cannibal Kids."

Most ludicrously dressed group, Mrs. James McDonald, Mrs. Roy Rankin, Mrs. J. B. Zook, as "The Jiggs Family."

Most fantastically dressed man, Paul Slusher as "The Minstrel Man."

Most fantastically dressed woman, Mrs. Fannie Poy as "The Colonial Dame."

Most ludicrously dressed man, Wallace Wolfe as a much pached hobo.

Opinion is prevalent that the fans would welcome a return engagement between these two men.

FORDSON Farm Tractor

The Fordson cuts the cost of preparing land almost to half of what it costs with horses. But even more important is the fact that the Fordson saves from thirty to fifty percent of the farmer's time. And time saved—getting fields in shape to plant in the proper season; getting things done when they should be done—means money to the farmer. Besides it helps greatly in solving the labor problem.

As ever, the machine way is proving more efficient, faster, easier than the old hand way. In the factory, the machine increases production, saves labor—produces more at less cost. And that is what the Fordson does on the farm. The Fordson way is the machine way of farming. Besides it helps the labor problem.

cost is low; and the after or operating cost is low. It is a compact, easily handled tractor, backed by the greatest tractor service organization in the world.

We are Fordson dealers. Not only do we sell Fordson tractors, but we carry a stock of Fordson parts and employ Fordson mechanics to help the farmers get the best results from the Fordson. Let us demonstrate the Fordson on your own farm.

GRAND OPERA IS TO RETURN

(By Associated Press)
New York—Grand Opera will return to the stage of the Manhattan Opera House here after a ten year absence, with the offering of Bizet's "Carmen" by the San Carlo company. This will give New York three grand opera organizations during the coming season, the others being the Metropolitan and the Chicago grand opera companies.

The original purpose of the Manhattan was to provide a home for grand opera, but ten years ago its owner, Oscar Hammerstein, made a deal eliminating himself and his theaters from the opera field for a decade. His widow acquires possession of the property, marking a return of the house to its former use.

Miss Alice Gentle, who will sing the title role, Carmen, in the opening, was to have made her New York debut in that part ten years ago, but the deal closing the Manhattan to grand opera intervened, so that her appearance in New York in that role was deferred a decade.

An Inexcusable Act

The closing down of The Washington Gas and Electric Company Monday shortly after the noon hour, cutting off from consumers all electric current for either light or power purposes, was an act which, thus far, is without any shadow of justification and brings upon the company, justly too, the severest criticism of all classes of citizens.

With no previous warning the city and county was suddenly deprived of electric current, the wheels of our industrial plants were halted, business in all lines practically came to a standstill while a near panic seized upon the citizens as they faced a night of darkness in homes and on the streets.

Men who had thousands of dollars' worth of perishable property imperilled by the sudden halting of practically all the motive power of the city and who had been given no chance to prepare for or to avoid the condition which suddenly faced them, besieged the power plant for relief. Only subordinates were to be found and they were able to give only the most meagre information and to promise no relief to the anxious public.

According to the best information obtainable the shut down was occasioned by a threat of some one or some authority to arrest the officials of the company if they operated the plant, at any time, without a licensed engineer in charge and as the company did not have a sufficient number of licensed engineers employed to operate the full twenty-four hour shift required by the local demand for power, the shutdown was determined upon rather than face prosecution.

That's no excuse, because within a few minutes after the plant was shut down, several licensed engineers offered to serve. So far as the public is informed, no determined effort has been made by the company to avoid the crisis into which the city was plunged on Monday.

If the company has been operating without the required corps of licensed engineers it is strange that it would suddenly become such a stickler for law observance. If further time was needed to enroll in the law observing class it could, doubtless, have been obtained from the state authorities or assistance could have been obtained from one of the numerous concerns which offered aid immediately after the shutdown.

All of which creates a suspicion that there is some connection between the action of Monday and the controversy with the city officials regarding rates. Possibly not, but that's the construction people generally are placing upon the company's action on Monday.

Most people think the action was taken by the company to scare the people with a sample of what would happen if the company got mad and refused to furnish service.

If that was the purpose the officials of the company succeeded admirably. They scared the people all right, and they angered them at the same time.

We have been friendly to the endeavor of the company to obtain a readjustment of the rate schedule because we felt that there was real justice in its contention as to increased cost of production, but if the action of Monday was a part of a campaign to coerce the city officials or to force favorable public opinion it must be condemned, unqualifiedly.

That action creates, justly, a hostile feeling. The rate readjustment must be brought about, if at all, by different methods—methods more in keeping with the intelligence of the community.

The action of Monday has hurt the company immeasurably in public esteem. People do not feel that the proper effort to avoid the crisis of Monday was made by the company or that the proper warning was given.

No matter what some irresponsibles in state positions may have said or threatened the people feel the whole trouble could have been avoided, or at least the public could have been given warning in time to prepare for the emergency or to avoid the consequences of being caught unawares.

We still think the tangle between the electric company and the city, as to rates, should be straightened out if possible, but if the company is to persist in such conduct as that of Monday, either by deliberate design as a part of a plan to force through an agreement or a don't care policy to be the rule unless a favorable agreement is made, the city should apply to the state utilities commission to seize and operate the plant as the needs of the city contemplate in the franchise granted to the company and under which it lives and operates.

The time for a show-down has come and most people want to see the matter ended finally.

Now that we have gone to the mat we all feel that we should wrestle the company to a finish.

POETRY FOR TODAY

SUNDAY IN SEPTEMBER

Sunday morning in September—
Hills with purple veiled,
Roadsides decked with gold and purple
Walls with woodbine trailed.

Orchards with lush peaches laden,
Gardens rainbow gay,
Birds a-wing for sunny southlands
All the livelong day.

On the air the mellow music
Of the church bells sweet,
Calling souls for ardent worship
In God's house to meet.

And within the temple's portals
These September days,
What a balm in Gilead, truly,
Are the hymns of praise!

What repose for fretted spirits
Comes with quiet prayer
On September Sunday mornings—
Beautiful and fair.

Glorious Sundays of September
Long my thought has been
That, on days like this, to heaven
Earth is near of kin!

BRITISH WHEAT CROP IS SMALL BREAD 30 CENTS

(By Associated Press)

London, September 18.—With bread selling at 25 cents a loaf and soon to be raised to 30 and later perhaps to 35 cents England is harvesting this season the smallest wheat crop since the early days of the war. Production of barley, on the other hand, will show a material increase over that of the last few years.

The reasons for this state of affairs, according to Professor James Long, a well-known agricultural expert are government control and beer. The price of wheat and oats is regulated, but no restrictions have been placed on that of barley. As the market price of barley is exceptionally high farmers planted that grain instead of wheat and oats.

Professor Long shows that since 1918 wheat has been reduced by 679,000 acres, or more than one-third of present area while oats also an important bread stuff, has fallen off by 512,000 acres. "On the basis of wheat," he says, "this means a loss of bread grain equal to some 38,000,000 bushels, or sufficient to feed 7,500,000 persons. It is a curious commentary on the fact that the barley crop has considerably increased, and that in consequence beer has so far occupied the position of bread."

The country has fewer cattle than in any year since 1903 and 5,330,000 less sheep than the average of the 10 years from 1904 to 1913. The decrease in cattle since last year is more than 500,000 head.

MEXICO GREAT OIL RESERVOIR OF N. AMERICA

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 13.—Mexico promises to become the oil reservoir of the Western hemisphere, the department of commerce declared today in a review of the petroleum industry in the Southern republic. With unlikely to exhaust producing fields in creased consumption in the U. S. this country within 20 or 25 years, Mexico, the statement said, "offers the most encouragement to the American oil industry, both for present production and geographical situation."

Exhaustion for 40 percent of the producing fields of the U. S., the departments review stated, has caused Mexico to take second place in oil production, although only about 12 percent of the potential capacity of Mexican wells is being actually produced.

Oil exports from Mexico during the first six months of 1920 totaling 69,000,000 barrels, an increase of 72 percent

FARM NOTES

FALL FLORAL NOTES

Now is the time to plant iris and peonies.

Dig dahlias, canna, and gladiolus bulbs before frost. Cut off the tops of dahlias but allow the gladiolus leaf blades to remain until they become dry, when the dead leaves and the old bulbs can be broken apart and cleaned. Dahlias, cannas, and gladioli should be stored in such places as would keep potatoes. They should never get a touch of frost, nor should they become too dry nor too damp.

Remove all the diseased parts of any plants in the garden and burn them. This may save the plants from disease another year. Cut off all tops hollyhocks, phlox, peonies, and larkspurs, and do not allow them to decay in a pile or to remain on the ground where they have grown. Examine iris for spots on the leaves. Cut off all leaves so affected and add them to the bonfire. Leaves and other materials not diseased may well be saved and composted for their fertilizer value in the soil. But burn everything which shows disease spots.

COVER CROP ON CORN

LAND GAINING FAVOR

The sowing of a cover crop of rye and vetch on corn land to be replanted to corn is being done this fall more than ever, particularly in the rolling and hilly sections of Ohio. The seed for this crop may be sown as soon as the corn is cut. A satisfactory mixture consists of five pecks of rye and two pecks of vetch, sown the same as wheat at the rate of six pecks to the acre.

While the price of vetch seed is pretty high, enough seed will be produced on a small acreage in one season to enable the farmer to employ this practice on a more extensive scale the following year with a relatively small outlay. If the crop is allowed to mature, upward of 20 bushels per acre of the mixture can be obtained. The vetch should be inoculated if sown on ground on which it has not been grown before. The cover crop not only prevents washing but adds nitrogen and organic matter to the soil and may be pastured in the spring.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Friends in this city received, Tuesday, beautifully engraved announcements of the marriage of Miss Marie Grove, of Urbana, and Mr. Clarence A. Kutzle, of Archbold, O., which was solemnized at the bride's home in Urbana, Monday afternoon, September the twentieth.

Mr. and Mrs. Kutzle will be at home after October first at Archbold a suburb of Toledo where Mr. Kutzle is manager of the Acme Metal works.

The bride will be remembered as a former Art teacher in the public schools of this city, where she was popular with a large number of friends in both school and outside circles.

The Mary Boyd Hale Bible Class of the First Presbyterian Church gave a farewell supper for their beloved teacher, Mrs. William Boynton Gage, Saturday night, entertaining with Rev. and Mrs. Gage all of their husbands.

Had it not been for the genuine sorrow over the coming separation, which surcharged the atmosphere, the evening would have set itself apart as one of the most delightful in class annals, but, withal, there was so much pleasurable sociability and so many charming features connected, that it will linger a cherished memory.

Three long tables formed a hollow square and were lovely in appointment and decoration. The most brilliant of Fall flowers, in wonderful arrangement, filled baskets colorful to the last degree, on the tables and in the window embrasures. The Zimmermans won new laurels in the beauty of the decorations.

A supper of particularly delicious viands was admirably served the committee efficiently in charge with the President, Mrs. Josephine Kerr, Mrs. J. F. Dennis chairman, Mesdames W. R. Smith, Os McLellan, Fred Hamm and Carrie Deere. All the women of the class brought willingly to the supper their best efforts.

With the satisfying of the inner man Mrs. Lulu H. Robinson rose to present to Mrs. Gage a very generous purse of gold pieces, the gift of the women of her class, collected by a special committee, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Frank M. Fullerton.

With much heartiness Mrs. Robinson expressed the sadness felt at this parting of the ways and the love which went out warmly and would linger with the thought of the teacher her charm of manner, gracious presence and ability in instruction. While most regretful of the departure of both Rev. and Mrs. Gage, the class sped their going with all good wishes and hoped that the shining gift to the teacher would be symbolic of a future bright and rounded life.

Both Rev. and Mrs. Gage responded eloquently and with much feeling and expressed fervently their own regret in leaving the church and people to whom they were so warmly attached.

After informal goodbyes Rev. and Mrs. Gage left in their coupe for their long trip west. The car was equipped with the complete camp outfit and they spent the first night in camp near Jamestown. Both are great lovers of the out doors and are expecting to fully enjoy the outing features of the trip.

A very pleasurable social evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Brown, in Bloomingburg, Saturday night.

The affair was in the nature of a surprise in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Laughlin, who are leaving for their new home in Reynoldsburg, Ohio.

Every one brought a well filled basket and the table was a veritable picture with central embellishment of a huge basket of fall flowers.

Those present were Rev. and Mrs. Laughlin, son, Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Groff, daughter Opal, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allemang Mr. and Mrs. W. E.

A CURTAILMENT OF HERALD ISSUES BY THE SHUTDOWN

The curtailed issues of the Evening Herald of Monday and the Morning Herald of Tuesday, due to the shutting down of the Washington Gas & Electric Company's plant, was a matter of regret, as well as inconvenience and expense to The Herald Publishing Company.

The cutting off of the electric light current made it impossible to operate either the battery of linotypes or the press until the time limit was short and a large amount of the most important news of the day had to be carried over or thrown in the discard.

The Herald of Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning necessarily contained some news which should have appeared Monday, which is absolutely against the policy of the paper, but it is news of too much interest to be cast aside. With the accumulated copy from Monday the linotypes have been overworking and, as far as is possible, Herald readers will find the happenings of the first of the week in these later issues.

At both of these schools there will be speakers to give information concerning the political parties and their platforms and a demonstration of the ballot will be made. For the latter purpose a regular ballot booth has been erected.

Dead Pigs Pay no Profits

That's the thing to consider when you are inclined to debate the little extra it takes to purchase the surest possible immunity against hog cholera.

What does it profit you to save a few cents on the cost of the serum—if the pig dies?

PITMAN-MOORE Anti-Hog Cholera Serum

carries the most positive assurance of immunity it is possible for science to create. Its production is safeguarded in every way to prevent contamination. We won't even take a chance of contamination by the pure country air that surrounds our laboratories, but handle the product as far as possible in sealed sterilized containers.

Then, when it is finished, we inject it into guinea pigs and rabbits to make sure there are no foreign poisons in it and no abscess-forming bacteria. It is guaranteed to be free from the germs of anthrax, foot and mouth disease and similar scourges.

This serum is delivered in patent airtight bottles. It is administered only by licensed, graduate veterinarians—in this community by—

TRUCK WRECKED DRIVER NEARLY LOSES HIS LIFE

Earnest Locklear, Bloomington, Almost Bleeds to Death Following Auto Mishap.

Six Others Have Fortunate Escapes When Truck Leaves Road on Turn.

With his clothing saturated with blood which was pouring from a half dozen wounds, Earnest "Skeeter" Locklear, 21, of Bloomington, was taken to the Fayette Hospital early Tuesday morning as result of a motor truck taking the ditch and turning over while making a turn on the Jeffersonville pike, near the Robinson farm.

Locklear was more dead than alive and Dr. L. L. Brock was summoned and made every effort to restore his rapidly waning strength by heart stimulants, and succeeded in restoring the weak heart to fairly strong pulsations.

Locklear and Chas. Beatty, Geo. Furbush, Earnest Woodfork, Howard Hamilton, John Roberts and Paul Jefferson, all of Bloomington, were on their way to the Luther Ervin farm, to bale straw, and the accident occurred as they were making the turn, with Locklear at the wheel and driving quite rapidly.

All except Locklear escaped serious injury, although all were bruised and badly shaken up.

Besides having the carotid artery severed near the base of the ear, Locklear had an artery cut in his right arm, his lip cut through, his left leg broken near the hip, and minor injuries. He nearly bled to death before reaching this city. Jas. F. Miller, who lived nearby, loaded the injured man into his automobile and hurried him to this city. A few minutes longer and the man would have died from loss of blood.

GIVE TESTIMONY IN THEFT CASE

James Minshall and John Andrews, of the Palmer Garage, are in Portsmouth to testify in a case wherein a young man charged with stealing a Ford automobile and endeavoring to sell it in this city is on trial.

Mr. Sauer has purchased the Ellis building which offers an ideal place for his bakery and sales room.

DAMON-PYTHIAS COMBINATION REVIVED; CARDINALS SHOULD BENEFIT AS RESULT

The sale of Lew McCarthy by the Giants to the Cardinals a while ago tickled at least two people immensely, those two being Lew himself and Ferdinand Stubblefield Schupp, Cardinal pitcher. McCarthy was Schupp's catcher when Ferdie was with the Giants and the two were great friends. The presence of his favorite backstop behind the plate ought to make Schupp's pitching more effective than ever, and he has been going mighty good.

Ballots sent out last week to members of the Fayette County Farm Bureau for voting on ten nominees, seven of whom were to be selected as members of the Board of Directors of the Fayette Livestock Shipping Company, were counted at the Executive Offices, Monday, and the result of the election was as follows:

Roy Hegler and J. M. Willis, for a term of three years; J. L. Rothrock and Oris Hegler, for a term of two years; J. W. Hopkins, J. B. Marks, and E. E. Beatty, for one year.

Within the next few days the newly chosen Board of Directors will meet to elect a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and a manager.

The Shipping Company already has its organization working and last week shipped the first carload of hogs under acting manager Homer Hutson. The hogs were sold on the Columbus market at $17.85, netting the shippers $17.33.

No action has as yet been taken towards calling a new minister.

GOVERNOR APPROVES LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

Governor James M. Cox, Democratic nominee for president, has expressed his hearty approval of the library development in America which is being promoted by the American Library Association. In a letter to Mr. Carl P. Vitz of the Cleveland Public Library, who is Ohio State Director for the "Books for Everybody" movement, Governor Cox declared his eagerness to assist the furthering of popular education through libraries and the establishment of library service for sixty million Americans now without access to libraries.

Governor Cox wrote "I recall quite well the report of the committee on the matter of the Enlarged Program of the American Library Association. At the time the report was made I gave my hearty and whole approval of the plan. I now want to reiterate that approval most emphatically and welcome this opportunity to lend every possible encouragement."

"The growth of the Library Associations in the United States has been remarkable but I fear it has been altogether too localized to be of the utmost value. We do not need to increase the encouragement of reading good books so much as we need to find the means to furnish to proper literature to those who desire to read. This point is one of the most potent factors considered by the American Library Association in their work. I want to help in every way I may."

Rectal Specialist

Dr. L. M. Ross, 165½ N. High St., Columbus, O., will visit Washington C. H., Thursday, September 23rd.

This will afford all sufferers with PILES, FISTULA, ITCHING, FIS-SURE or any other rectal disease or diseases resulting therefrom such as rheumatism, Bright's disease, Diabetes, prostatic and other diseases of men as well as certain diseases of women an opportunity to consult a specialist who employs non-surgical and humane methods of treatment.

You can appreciate what this means by the following statement by Mr. John Peterman, Route No. 8, London, O.:

"I was bothered with piles for 35 years. Was operated on in one of our best hospitals by one of the leading surgeons. Have consulted specialists and tried 'home' remedies as well as advertised 'cures' and obtained only slight relief. Finally I became so nervous and weak that I could scarcely do any work. As a last resort I consulted Dr. Ross and after treatment I am entirely cured. My bladder trouble as well as the aching in my back and legs are all gone. Any one desiring may write me as to the truth of this statement.

Don't wait until you have suffered years, but seek permanent relief now. Dr. Ross guarantees results or no pay, and no charges are made for consultation and advice. He will be at the Cherry House for one day only. Those who make appointment in advance will receive attention first. A booklet on rectal diseases will be sent free. Ask for it.

TO WOMEN WHO OVER DO

Thousands of American women in our homes are daily sacrificing their lives to duty. In order to keep the home neat and attractive, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo. Soon a weakness or displacement is brought on and they suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse. For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved a boon and a blessing to women in this condition, by restoring their systems to a normal healthy condition. Why don't you try it?

WILL ASK POWER COMPANY TO PAY FOR TIME LOST

Sears & Nichols Company
Announce Demand Will Be Made For Damage Sustained By Power Plant Closing.

Man Alleged To Have Issued Closing Order Says No Definite Closing Order Was Issued.

Two important developments have come from the unannounced closing down of the power plant of The Washington Gas & Electric Company which Monday afternoon paralyzed industry in this city and created a storm of complaint upon the part of those affected.

One of these is a statement made by Thomas Archer, Assistant Chief Deputy of the Industrial Commission of Ohio, who informed a local industrial concern that no definite order for closing the plant had been issued, although August Deschler, inspector who had made the rounds of this city recently had advised the company that the power plant must have a licensed engineer by the first of this week or they would close down the plant.

The other development is the announced decision of The Sears & Nichols Company to present a claim against The Washington Gas & Electric Company for damages resulting because of the cutting of of power which closed the factory completely.

Other concerns, it is announced, may also present claims for damages due to throwing scores of men out of work and stopping operations.

Announcement by employees of the power company were to the effect that Deschler had announced that unless the company had a licensed engineer by noon Monday that engineers on duty who were not licensed would be arrested and the plant closed.

To the manager of one local concern who immediately called Thomas Archer, of the Industrial Commission, Mr. Archer is said to have indicated that it was the belief that no serious effort had been made to obtain the licensed engineer demanded, and that the threat to close down was largely due to this belief existing.

Manager Gross, who has been out looking for engineers, returned to this city Monday night and Tuesday morning left for Chillicothe to continue the search.

Meanwhile, before they will consent to having the plant closed down, licensed engineers are placed at the disposal of the power company, in case of emergency, by The Washington Metal Products Company, The Fayette Grain Company, Sunlight Creameries, The Sears & Nichols Canning Company. Other concerns have indicated their intention of helping out if necessary to keep the plant in operation.

Meanwhile the uncertainty connected with the operation of the plant has caused considerable unrest, although the industrial concerns most seriously affected feel comparatively safe because of being advised by their attorneys to proffer the services of their own licensed engineers if necessary to prevent a shut-down, and if the offer is refused then close down and action for damages against the power company would be instituted.

Up to Tuesday morning no additional help had been obtained to man the engines.

TEACHERS' EFFORTS MEET WITH SUCCESS

The teachers of Old Central School who gave all their free time and efforts last week to the raising of funds for the rest room in their new building, are to be heartily congratulated upon the success of their work.

During the entire Festival Week these teachers made and sold doughnuts, hamburger sandwiches and other eatables at one of the Festival booths, taking around $400. Four thousand seven hundred and seventy-six doughnuts were sold. They were all made by Mrs. C. M. Moore and Mrs. Lizzie Ellen Green, other Old Central teachers who fried them and the hamburgers and sold the eatables were Misses Anna Bell, Edythe Blackman, Golda Baughn, Lillian Taylor, Emily Palmer, Lena Fultz and Aileen Hees.

On Saturday members of the Mothers' Circle surprised the teachers by sending in delicious home made eatable for a sale.

The old building has long been greatly in need of a rest room, there being no such place in case of sickness or accident.

The teachers were willing to give this extra work after their days' teaching in order to raise the money for this and to furnish up the play room.

PETEY, LISTEN HARD!

When it's your good luck to butt into Buffalo, go to that store on Ellicott Square where the dark haired clerk slips out Camels with both hands—plus a tank of talk on the side!

The thing that tickled me most was his suteness that I was after Camels! As soon as I had my coin on the counter and before I could say a word, he flashed me a package of Camels! When I asked him how he knew I wanted Camels, he took a pull on his laugh stock and soaked me with this:—"Can't tell you, old mayonnaise—I'm dressing!"

After he had waited on several other men who drew their Camels like I did, this salesman said:—"For a fact, most men here smoke Camels. They hit the popular taste! Camels have the right body and the right mildness and the right flavor! They're ALL right!"

And, Pete—he added this without a stutter: The more I see of the world and the more I learn about cigarettes, the more respect I have for Camels and Camels quality! I don't believe a better cigarette could be made at any price! And Pete—oh, Pete—listen to this gem:—"And it's an odds on bet I'm a good judge. I've tried 'em all—and my taste is the jury box!"

If that isn't a swell line of Camel talk, I'll sell my shoes! But, Peter, that salesman is right! It's my belief that no cigarette in the world can be favorably compared with Camels—they're so smooth and mellow and delightful!

I'm herewith slipping between the sheets, old book. So, you tell 'em the rest—you're so full of knowledge!

Sincerely

Shorty.
